Motion Addendum

- See denied Compassionate Release from June 9, 2021 from Warden Garcia - Please note as indicated in denial, Warden Garcia indicates that the petitioner's offense was non-parolable. This is an incorrect statement. Per her sentencing judge, The petitioner was to serve a minimum sentence of 30 years to be eligible for parole at that time, the petitioner has already served 34 years in prison and is 78 years old.

The petitioner has several health issues relating to her elderly age that the BOP cannot provide her with, the medical care that she needs. (United States vs. Sanders 2022 US Dist. Lexus 41504 (D. New Mexico March 9, 2022)

COMPASSIONATE RELEASE REQUEST
Re: The First Step Act

My Name is Stella Nickell, Reg #17371-086. I am requesting Compassionate Release, BOP PS 5050.50, chapter 2 "Extraordinary or Compelling circumstances" and chapter 4 "Non-medical Elderly," but I do have aging-related chronic medical conditions. I am under 18 USC 4205(g), "A sentencing Court, on motion of the BOP may make an inmate with a minimum term sentence immediately eligible for parole by reducing the minimum sentence to time served." I believe I qualify based on the following criteria.

- I am age 78 and have served over 30 years of my term.
- My sentence is 90 years with a 30 year minimum for 18 USC 1365.
- I was age 42 when I committed my offense; age 44 when sentenced.
- I should have been paroled at my first parole hearing(2017), that was also my two-thirds date, per law. Please see "Sentencing Monitoring Computation Data"
- 18 USC 4161 states "Shall be entitled to deduction from the term of his sentence beginning with the day on which the sentence commences to run."
"Good faith and common construction of the English language requires the Good Time to be taken from the total sentence off the top"; thus by law my time served plus 30 years good time equal two-thirds of my term.
- 18 USC 4205(2) "...a current prisoner, by operation of the law, receives full benefit of parole and one-third time release."
- 18 USC 4206(d) mandates "Any prisoner serving a sentence of 5 years or more who is not released under this section...shall be released after serving two-thirds (2/3) of term provided (1) no serious violations of the institution rules has occurred, or (2) proven probability he will commit a Federal, State or local crime".
- 18 USC 5871 Amendment deleted language that allowed the Parole Commission to consider parole at its own discretion, which became effective upon enactment of CCCR October 12, 1984.
- There is no 'proven', or even reasonable, probability that I will commit another offense when paroled; I am 78 years old and this is my first time in prison. I have always respected the officers and staff.
- I have only two minor Incident Infractions (1992/2003) in 35 years. Also BOP BRAVO shows "Criminal History (0)" and "Public Safety Factor (NONE)".
- The First Step Act "PATTERN" shows I have minus scores in both "General and Violent Recidivism Risk" which is minimum risk.
- My 2022 Program Review verifies my satisfactory adjustment, good rapport with staff and peers, and not a management problem. A hard worker with outstanding Work Performance Evaluations.
- My present Case Manager/Unit Team recommended parole at my parole hearings.
- I believe my trial/sentencing Judge was well aware of the laws, 18 USC 4205(2) and 18 USC 4206(d), concerning the two-thirds parole date and the 18 USC 5871 Amendment, thus the reason for his sentencing statement, "I have sentenced Ms. Nickell...with a 30 year minimum because I do not believe Ms. Nickell will be committing any crimes at 74 years old."
- I am accredited with two-thirds of my term by Parole Commission laws, which state, "...the law provides that the offender will be granted mandatory parole by the Commission when he/she has served two-thirds of term, unless the Commission makes a finding that either (1) the offender seriously or frequently violated institution rules or (2) there is a reasonable probability that the offender will commit further crime." 18 USC 4206(d) mandates 'proven' probability.

- It would seem the Parole Commission has forgotten/ignored the 18 USC 5871 Amendment that deleted language concerning parole at its discretion.
- The Sentencing Commission Recidivism Research found inmates age 65 and older exhibit a very low rate of recidivism (13%), as compared to other age groups.

Anna 90 Rider

Las Vegas, NV 89110

I have known Anna 90 (A.S.) 40 years. She and her family are generous enough to open their home and hearts to me with Compassion and Love, to help me reintegrate into society and the community. I will not be a burden for either for I have a good pre-release savings.

- Medical: I am eligible for Social Security, Medicare and Federally assisted Medicaid. I also plan to apply for AARP Medicare supplemental Insurance, and will have employment related insurance.
- Financial: I have pre-release savings and I am eligible for Social Security (I am 78 years old). I am capable of part-time work and have never had a problem finding work since age 18.

I will neither violate parole nor return to prison if humanly possible. I am not a danger to the safety of any person or the community

The Psychology classes have given me insight to help me understand the emotions that, through adversity, get suppressed by the innate instinct of self-preservation. I will diligently continue to strive toward self-improvement.

I plan to seek professional help through the Probation Departments' resources, and the community's, to help me understand more about what my mind and emotions were going through for me to commit the heinous offense I am responsible for. I need to know the WHY, because I am not an evil nor violent person.

I am very fortunate to have family and close friends that will help me with the transition back into society.

My siblings are all older than I am. The oldest is 88, if she is still living, none of them are in good health. I am secure in my entire family's love and support. I requested they not visit, for the hardship it would cause them and because I do not want them to see their youngest sibling in prison. I am the only one to ever be in prison. I plan to get reacquainted with them, if given the chance. I wish for them to know that I am still the same person/sister they grew up with.

I am accused of "Not knowing the moral wrong I committed". Nobody knows better than I the depth of my heinous offense and how deeply it goes against the 'accepted standards of conduct'. I have lived with it, daily, on my conscience and in my mind. There are no words descriptive or strong enough to express the sorrow I carry for causing such devastating loss. I am most remorseful for being responsible for the loss of two humans lives. If there was a way to make it never to have happened I would without question. I pray for forgiveness daily. I am now mentally and emotionally cognizant of the immoral heinous act I committed. I lost my mother and only brother while in prison. I am sure my sorrow was miniscule compared to the sorrow felt by the two families for the loss of their loved ones.

I truly and sincerely regret being responsible for the loss of those two precious lives. I pray for forgiveness. There is nothing in this life that can or will cause me to commit another crime/offense, of any kind, ever again!

My early release will neither depreciate the seriousness nor minimize the severity of my offense. It is not the length of sentence that dictates the seriousness, but all the important irretrievable, precious moments missed for life. i.e., being with my youngest daughter when my first grandson was born (1988); seeing my first great-grandson come kicking and screaming into this world (2005); being there when my next grandson (1992) and great-grandson started crawling; Watching them all grow and achieve in school; These missed moments are what rule the offense severity, also that I couldn't be there when my youngest was diagnosed with cancer (and I haven't been able to contact her since); helping my granddaughter with my great-grandsons (both have a handicap); and when the Doctor told her she had a 75% chance of cervical cancer if she had a child, she chose to have two. I have never seen my grandsons (now married young men) nor my great-grandsons (teenagers). The heartache of missing so very much in my childrens lives and not able to be there when needed most. Due to my own impulsive stupidity. These are what rule the severity of my offense.

I have taken my incarceration very seriously and have learned many profound lessons, through introspection, that have helped lead me to the self-improvement programs offered. I will find more resources once I return home.

The severity of my offense is evident in the reality of missing the most precious moments a great-grandmother can be presented with in life. I am responsible for, all concerned, missing so many of these treasures due to taking that one impulsive mis-step that shattered all our lives. I have carried that responsibility in my mind and on my conscience daily and will for life.

I am extremely grateful for the compassion and concern of the staff and officers who ask, "Nickell, when are you going home? You have done enough time." I pray you all believe and feel the same compassion.

Freedom is the greatest, most fantastic possession of life. I beg forgiveness and the chance to pass the knowledge from this experience on to others. "Nothing, no matter what it is, is important enough in life to jeopardize your freedom for". Freedom is too precious to waste and miss future treasurable moments.

In your infinite compassion and mercy, if you can find it in your heart, Please grant my compassionate release. I can, do and will promise not to return to prison. I am 78 years old and twice a great-grandmother. I also have served 35 years (two-thirds, per law) of my term. I am not a danger to the safety of any person nor the community. I will not be a burden to the community. I will not commit any Federal, State, or local offences or disregard the laws. Please know how very repentant I am for being responsible for the loss of two precious human lives!

Federal Register No. 17371-086
Request for Reduction in Sentence

Please be advised that Ms. Nickell's request for a reduction in sentence (RIS) pursuant to Program Statement No. 5050.50, Compassionate Release/Reduction in Sentence: Procedures for Implementation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 3582(c)(1)(A) and 4205(g), is denied. We have carefully reviewed the documentation accompanying this request and have consulted with the Assistant Director for the BOP's Correctional Programs Division.

Title 18 U.S.C. § 4205(g) allows a sentencing court, on motion of the BOP, to make an inmate with a minimum term sentence immediately eligible for parole by reducing the minimum term of the sentence to time served. Title 18 U.S.C. § 4205(g) was repealed effective November 1, 1987, but remains the controlling law for inmates whose offenses occurred prior to that date. See 28 C.F.R. § 572.40. The BOP cannot initiate such a motion on behalf of inmates who committed their offenses prior to November 1, 1987, and received non-parolable sentences. See 28 C.F.R. § 571.64.

Ms. Nickell is seeking a RIS in part on the basis of her age, the amount of time she has served, and the fact that she is eligible for parole. BOP records concerning Ms. Nickell reflect an offense date of June 5, 1986. Accordingly, her RIS request is to be considered under 18 U.S.C. § 4205(g). On June 17, 1988, she was sentenced to 90 years of imprisonment, with a minimum term of 30 years. She is currently 77 years old and has served over 33 years of imprisonment.

Ms. Nickell became eligible for parole on December 7, 2017. At her parole hearing held on March 4, 2021, the United States Parole Commission indicated there would be no change to the previous decision to deny two-thirds parole and continue to expiration. Ms. Nickell's next statutory interim hearing is scheduled for March 2023. As the United States Parole Commission has already heard Ms. Nickell's case, the BOP cannot initiate a RIS motion on her behalf. Accordingly, her RIS request is denied.

Please provide Ms. Nickell with a copy of this decision.

SUBJECT: Request for Compassionate Release/
Reduction in Sentence

Inmate: Nickell, Stella Maudine
Reg. No.: 17371-086
Docket No.: CR87-276 WD

I recommend consideration be given to modify the imposed term of confinement for inmate Nickell. This request is made pursuant to Program Statement 5050.50, Compassionate Release/Reduction in Sentence: Procedures for Implementation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 3582(c)(1)(A) and 4205(g), dated January 17, 2019; under section 2. Extraordinary or Compelling Circumstances.

Inmate Nickell was sentenced on June 17, 1988, under the "Old Law" to 90 years for Product Tampering, with a minimum term of 30 years. She has a projected release date of July 10, 2040, via Mandatory Release. She has served over 32 years of her sentence, and 62% of her statutory term. At age 76, inmate Nickell has already been denied parole twice. She requests a Compassionate Release for the above reasons, as well as numerous other reasons which include her medical conditions and overall positive institutional adjustment. Although she appears to not meet the criteria of the other subsections of the aforementioned program statement, an extraordinary or compelling circumstance exists.

In light of the current COVID-19 pandemic and the current sentiment of releasing offenders based on appropriate circumstances, it is my recommendation her case be submitted to the Assistant Director General Counsel for further review and consideration.

In regard to Nickell, Stella, Reg # 17371-086:

April 20th, 2022

Ms. Nickell began working for UNICOR in April of 1992. She began in the furniture factory as an overhead router and was quickly moved to the drafting department. Upon closure of the furniture factory she was transferred to the cut and sew factory as a maintenance mechanic. In 2011 she transferred to the Call Center where she has been the IT Clerk ever since. She assists with the daily preventative maintenance of all computers and repairs any broken equipment as needed. She quickly learned any task given to her.

Ms. Nickell is goal oriented and task driven. She assists staff with any and all assignments asked of her, training inmates and reporting any and all factory issues she's discovered, in a timely and informative manner. Her work ethic and commitment to Dublin's UNICOR mission set the example for all others to follow and that few can meet.

Stella always maintains a professional attitude while working closely with staff as well as inmates. She is an exemplary employee by following all instructions and is always where she is supposed to be. She's a great mentor to others, displaying good work ethics and overall attitude to authority figures.

Karen Khan, UNICOR Factory Manager
